

restrictive layer

Horizon or condition in the soil profile or underlying strata that restricts movement of fluids; a restrictive layer may constitute a limiting soil/site condition; examples include fragipan, spodic horizons, massive structural grade, or certain bedrock, etc.; see also limiting condition.