

single differential float switch

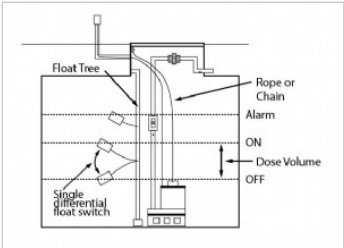

Float switch that performs both the energizing and deenergizing operations.

single differential float switch images/graphics:

Demand dosing single differential float switch

Dosing tank with demand dosing controls (single differential on/off float plus alarm float) with labeled pump and alarm activation elevations

Demand dosing two float

Dosing tank with demand dosing controls (one single differential for on/off pump operation plus an alarm float) with labeled dose volume