

bedding

1. Process of laying piping, conduit or other structure in a trench shaped to the appropriate contour; 2. Tamping earth around piping, conduit, or other structure to provide support; 3. Material placed under piping, conduit, tank, or other component for uniform structural support.

bedding images/graphics:

Bedding - placement within excavation for piping