

average

Sum of individual measurements taken during a given period divided by the total number of measurements taken during the same period.

average images/graphics:

Volume, surge