

chemical oxygen demand (COD)

Amount of the organic matter in wastewater that can be oxidized by a very strong chemical oxidant; typically measured by a standard test using dichromic acid as the oxidant.