

regulator

Authorized government representative who enforces health and environmental laws and rules, reviews permits, evaluates operation, and assesses structural integrity of onsite/decentralized wastewater treatment systems; the nature and scope of duties performed varies by jurisdiction (city, county, state, or federal); sometimes known as an inspector; see also inspector.