

value

one of the three variables of color, described as the degree of lightness or darkness of the color in relation to a neutral gray scale; on a neutral gray scale, value extends from pure black to pure white; see also Munsell Color System; hue; and chroma.