

aquic moisture regime

Soil moisture regime nearly free of dissolved oxygen due to saturation by groundwater or its capillary fringe and occurring during periods when the soil temperature 50 cm (20 inches) below the surface is greater than 5°C (41°F).