

setback

Minimum horizontal separation distance between system components and site/facility features; typically defined by code or regulation.