

circulation ratio

Total volume of effluent dosed to the treatment unit relative to the volume of forward flow to the next component of the treatment train; calculated by dividing the total dosed volume by the forward flow volume (total dosed volume / forward flow volume); see also recirculation ratio and forward flow.