

soil morphology

1. Physical constitution of a soil profile as exhibited by the kinds, thickness, and arrangement of the horizons in the profile; and by the texture, structure, consistence, and porosity of each horizon; 2. Visible characteristics of the soil or any of its parts.