

drip field

Above or below grade soil treatment area where final treatment and dispersal occurs via application of effluent to the infiltrative surface via pressurized drip tubing utilizing emitters; see also drip field, surface; drip field, subsurface; and drip tubing.