

backsight (BS or +)

Rod reading taken on a point of known or assumed elevation (where establishing the first benchmark, usually assumed as 100.00); the backsight reading is added to the elevation to determine the height of instrument (HI); see also height of instrument (HI).