

separation distance

Minimum vertical or horizontal space required between specified components, between components and physical features, or between components and legally-defined boundaries.