

eutrophication

Nutrient enrichment of a lake or other water body typically characterized by increased growth of planktonic algae and rooted plants; can be accelerated by wastewater discharges and polluted runoff.