

line of sight

Straight line passing through the center of the barrel of a telescope used in surveying; always parallel to the datum.