monitoring

Assessing component or system status relative to specific operational, performance or compliance standards (e.g., process monitoring, qualitative or quantitative monitoring as part of service visit); see also system management; inspection; operation; maintenance; process monitoring.