

operation-based performance standard

Specific, measurable, and enforceable standard that establishes minimum operation and maintenance frequency, evaluation parameters and reporting requirements relative to the operational status of a system; see also operation; and maintenance.