

construction survey

Survey used to locate structures and provide required elevation points during their construction.