

below-grade system

Soil treatment area designed and installed such that the infiltrative surface and most of the sidewall are below the original ground elevation; a cover of suitable soil stabilizes the final grade, supports vegetative growth and sheds runoff; see also above-grade and at-grade.