

storage lagoon

Lagoon where some form of wastewater is stored before it is either conveyed to another component for further processing or is reused.