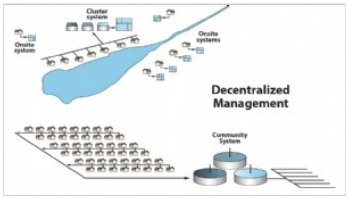
decentralized management

Method of managing wastewater infrastructure assets where a responsible management entity oversees a combination of onsite, cluster, small community, commercial, institutional or industrial decentralized wastewater treatment systems.

decentralized management images/graphics:



Management series, decentralized

Management series: decentralized collection, treatment and dispersal