linear loading

Quantity of liquid applied along the length of a lateral, trench or bed, typically expressed as volume per unit length (e.g. gallons per foot). Movement of liquid dispersed into the receiving environment through the window of acceptance at the perimeter of the soil treatment area linear loading images/graphics:

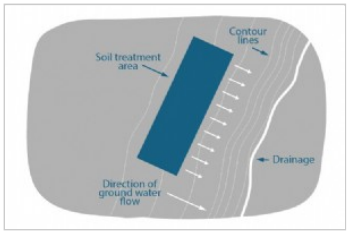
Contour high linear loading STA

Contour loading rate series - high linear loading rate



Contour low linear loading STA

Contour loading rate series - low linear loading rate