

parallel distribution

Pressure or gravity distribution of effluent that proportionally and simultaneously loads multiple sections of a final treatment and dispersal component.