

land survey

Plane survey made for locating property lines, subdividing land into smaller parts, and determining land areas and other information involving the transfer of land from one owner to another; also known as a property survey, boundary survey, or cadastral survey.