

minimum liquid level

1. Distance from the bottom of a dosing tank to pump off elevation; coincides with the minimum volume required to maintain pump submergence; 2. Elevation at which a siphon completes a dose.