

corrosion

1. Condition in which the surface of a component is chemically degraded; 2. condition in which the surface of a concrete component is chemically degraded (dissolving) exposing aggregate and/or structural reinforcement materials; see also spalling.