

mitigation

Correcting system malfunction accomplished through an operational evaluation of all components (source, collection and storage, advanced treatment, final treatment, and dispersal) to determine the reason for the malfunction.