

treatment

method, technique, or process designed to remove solids and/or pollutants from wastewater prior to conveyance to a final treatment and dispersal component or reuse; often, this treatment is designed to meet a primary, secondary, tertiary, and/or disinfection treatment standard; includes pretreatment and advanced treatment.