

land application

Process in which biosolids or liquid waste treatment residuals are spread over, sprayed onto, or injected into the soil.