

grassed waterway

Natural or constructed watercourse or outlet that is shaped or graded and established with suitable vegetation to minimize erosion during periods of surface water runoff.