

alluvial soil

1. Soil developing from sediments (alluvium) recently deposited by running water of streams and rivers and exhibiting essentially no horizon development or modification of the recently deposited materials; 2. wWhen capitalized, it refers to a great soil group of the azonal order consisting of soils with little or no modification of the recent sediment in which they are forming.