

as-built drawing

Construction document that is the approved design with red-line notations by the installer that reflect all modifications, substitutions and deviations made during the construction process. See also record drawing.