

infiltration

1. Entry of water or effluent into the soil; 2. Undesirable inflow or seepage of water into a system component; for example, infiltration of surface water into a tank through a leaking pipe, pipe penetration, or through an access riser/tank seam that is not water-tight.