

pressurized flow

Portion of a dosing event during which the distribution system is full and thus at operating pressure.