

drainback volume

Amount of effluent that flows back into a pump tank after pump operation ceases during a dosing event.