

air lock

1. Condition in a pressurized distribution system where the presence of air or other gases prevents flow; 2. condition where air or other gases collect at a high point in a gravity distribution system and prevent or restrict flow.