

minimum dose volume

Design parameter that specifies the smallest amount of effluent to be delivered to a component during a dosing event.