

log-reduction

The reduction in the relative concentration of infective pathogens or surrogate parameters through a treatment process expressed in \log_{10} units. For example, a 1-log reduction equates to 90% removal, 2-log reduction to 99% removal, and 3-log reduction to 99.9% removal