

forward flow

The average flow generated at the dwelling that passes completely through the system to the soil treatment area.