

system management

complete range of activities necessary to conduct operational services on wastewater treatment systems, including inspection, operation, maintenance, monitoring, and compensation.