

prime

1. Act of initiating pump operation by filling the pump housing with liquid;
2. Air pressure under the bell of a siphon that allows it to operate properly.