

linear loading rate

Quantity of liquid applied along the length of a lateral, trench or bed in a time interval, typically expressed as volume per unit length per unit time (e.g. gallons per foot per day).