

authorization

Official permission, approval, or the legal right to perform work or provide a service.