

continuous process monitoring

Real-time data recording of process information, including equipment condition and process parameters to identify deviations from normal operation; see also condition-based maintenance and predictive maintenance.