

secondary restraint

Physical barrier installed in an access riser, manhole or lift station; serves as a safety feature to restrict unauthorized entry when the primary cover is removed.